

THE BIG BRYAN BUSINESS BOOSTER

A Large Crowd Present at the Rink and the Drill and Costumes

There was a packed house at the skating rink last night to witness the parade arranged by the B. Y. P. U. entitled the "Big Bryan Business Booster." The parade was led by Colonel Farley, who represented Bryan. The towns following were Navasota, Marlin, Mexia, Calvert, Hearne, Hempstead, Caldwell, Cameron, Taylor, Georgetown, Mart, Teague and Rockdale. Each town had a representative. This was followed by a banner, "What Makes Bryan Lead Them All?" This was followed by answering banners reading "Eight White Churches," "Seven Colored Churches," "Bryan College Interurban," "A. & M. College," "Allen Academy," "Bryan Baptist Academy," "Villa Maria Academy," "Public Schools," "New Factories," "New Industries," "New Business Houses," "New Federal Building," "New Hotels," "New Residences," "There Is a Reason Why," "A Live Commercial Club," "Backed by Live Business Men," "Oh, You Bryan," a costumed representative of Uncle Sam bearing a banner, "Bryan, My Favorite Child! Ain't She a Peach?" Then followed the representatives of the business men in representative costumes, indicative of the different businesses. The parade took the form of a military square drill and was greatly applauded. The advertisers' announcement was made by Secretary Hewitt as each representative passed him on the floor. They were:

Brandon & Lawrence: "I bought these clothes at Navasota, but am going to Brandon & Lawrence's for Society Clothes."

E. L. Beard: "In union there is strength."

S. L. Boatwright: "Will protect your life with insurance."

Prof. S. L. Ball: "Will make you a pianist."

Bryan Telephone Company: "Saves you an errand boy."

Bell Bros.: "Choice groceries, quick service."

Bryan Eagle: "All the news from every part of the world."

Bryan Power Company: "Furnishes light without heat, light without headaches, light without smell."

J. M. Caldwell: "For dainties in china, for brilliancy in diamonds."

City National Bank: "Second to none for service and safety."

H. R. Cavitt: "Says cook with gas."

Cole Hardware Company: "The home of sportsmen's supplies."

Exchange Hotel: "For the weary traveler."

H. G. Eaves: "Makes clothes for the chaps."

E. R. Emmel: "Nothing too good in drugs."

Eugene Edge: "On the Corner": "The home of Princess."

S. H. Franklin: "The original Bryan market."

First State Bank & Trust Company: "Whose depositors are insured by the state of Texas."

Fountain Bros.: "For cheap Brazos farms."

First National Bank: "For service and security."

Globe Dry Goods Company: "The Home of American Lady Shoe."

Howell Lumber Company: "When you want to build."

J. W. Huntcutt: "For farm or fancy horses."

Tyler Haswell: "For school books, paints and wall paper."

Howell & Newton: "Groceries and market; quality and service."

M. H. James: "Purity in drugs."

L. B. Kern: "Nuts, candy and fruit."

Lawler Milling Company: "Offer $100 in gold to anyone who can get a flour in Texas market that equals Roxane or Maid of Orleans."

Mendlovitz Department Store: "For everything you need."

Myers Bros.: "Our Flag Flour."

J. A. Moore: "Insurance is better than a fireman."

Munday & Moehlman: "Expert blacksmithing."

Nichol & Cloud: "Service and reliability market."

Park, the Jeweler: "Nothing too nice in jewelry."

E. F. Parks: "The big furniture house."

Parker-Astin Hardware Company: "Should be visited before you go hunting."

Reed & Stewart: "Jacob's delicious candy."

Sun Printing Company: "Expert printers; opposite courthouse."

Sam's Oyster Parlor: "Feeds men with any kind of pocket book."

Studio Grand: "For perfect photos."

Stephan Bros.: "Ice and cool drinks."

W. E. Saunders: "The home of the 'Gold Dust Twins.'"

Smith Drug Company: "The home of the soda fountain."

Sanders Bros.: "Home of cream of wheat."

Singer Sewing Machine: "Will make work easy."

F. S. Taylor: "Expert plumber."

Vick Bros.: "Home of Nutriline."

Sam B. Wilson: "Great dry goods emporium."

Walker's 5c and 10c Store: "Home of Santa Claus."

Withers & McNeely: "For latest in decoration."

W. P. Wallace: "Will keep you out of the mud with those splendid sidewalkers."

A. M. Waldrop & Co.: "The famous L system."

Miss Aubrey Wilkerson, for the Parker-Astin Hardware Company, and Miss Ara Haswell, for E. F. Parks, led the two wings of the business representatives.

The B. Y. P. U. was represented by the Buchanan Quartet, who gave a special vocal number to the tune of "What's the Matter with Father?" as follows:

A bunch of nearby cities and towns, As jealous as can be;

They try to keep the pace with Bryan The best they can, you see.

'Tis I am this and I am that, And then I am some more;

And some of them jump up and say Now just you watch us grow!

Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah! What's the matter with Bryan?

She's all right!

Can you wonder that Bryan's out of sight!

I'm very strong for neighboring towns, But ask the drummer that goes the rounds,

What's the matter with Bryan? She's all right!

On account of changes made at the last moment and lack of space we cannot give a correct list of representatives, but on behalf of the B. Y. P. U. we extend thanks to all who took part in making the affair such a complete success.

RETURNED FROM FINE HUNT.

Messrs. J. M. Williams and Otto Williams of Green's Prairie, near Wellborn, have returned from a fine hunt in Dimmitt county, in Southeast Texas. They went out to the home of Mr. Sam Lee, a former citizen of this county, and he and others there accompanied them on the hunt. They brought back a very fine "buck" with seven points, which was on exhibition today in front of Cooper & Cole's store. The deer attracted a great deal of attention and old hunters pronounced him one of the finest specimens they had ever seen.

Mr. Williams stated to an Eagle reporter that game was plentiful in that section and his party succeeded in killing seven deer, four wolves and one wildcat. They report a most pleasant trip.

FOR SALE.

About 240 acres of excellent prairie land; 100 acres in cultivation, nice meadow, balance in pasture; two sets good tenant houses; an up-to-date seven-room residence; good barn and other outbuildings; deep well; all within one mile of graded school, church and gin at Wheelock. Reasonable prices. Come see the owner.

WOMEN'S HAIR.

Easy to Make It Soft, Luxuriant and Radiant.

Many women have hair so dull and faded that it is actually repulsive.

These women have probably never heard of PARISIAN SAGE, the invigorating hair dressing that is being used by thousands of refined women throughout America.

If your hair is falling or thin or faded or lifeless; if you have dandruff or itching scalp; if your hair is not as fascinating as you would like to have it, go to E. J. Jenkins' drug store this very day, ask for a 50c bottle of PARISIAN SAGE and start at once to make your hair perfect and even glorious.

PARISIAN SAGE is guaranteed to give satisfaction, or money back. Girl with Auburn hair on every carton. For sale by E. J. Jenkins and druggists everywhere.
